Va 17 lot 5/10, 6.2

Ghost Not at Home

(Continued from Page 1)

where she spent the day to get away from all the excitement in pretty steadily at around 600 or the street.

"What do they think they'll afternoon. see?" she asked of the throngs. 'There's nothing to see out on the streets, and I don't want them searchers Sunday. in my house."

What there had been to see inside the house was IFO's - init is, moved in Thursday with the Daughtery family.

It is a provided in the production of the Duke of Parasycholthe Daughtery family.

suburb at a rate of 600 an hour ceived at the university.

Most of the curiosity-seekers, realized police cordons would keep ford, Long Island, in 1958.

them from approaching the house.

The crowd in the streets stayed 700, then thinned out towards late

The poltergeist attracted the attention of out-of-town psychic re-

TEEN-AGER NEEDED

(A poltergeist, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica, makes Small pieces of furniture and crockery had been flying around. The presence of some person or inside the been flying around inside the house every evening boy, is almost invariably essential since the poltergeist, or whatever for the production of the phenom-

Police estimated that as many University Institute of Parasycholas 10,000 persons went to Florida ogy said Sunday night the situation at the Daughtery house the Daughtery house. In the after- is typical of those in the frequent noon, cars were arriving in the reports of poltergeist haunting re-

Dr. Pratt investigated the fahowever, moved on when they mous Hermann poltergeist at Sea-

Hugh Lynn Cayce, head of the Association for Research and Enlightenment at Virginia Beach, also expressed interest in the Florida Avenue phenomena.

Cases of objects being moved around with no rational explanation of their behaviour are common, he said.

He recalled that Andrew Jackson was pelted by poltergeistpropelled objects while he was in Nashville, Tenn., shortly before he became president of the United